PRESENT:

BIPOC ADULT SIBLING ROUNDTABLE

NOVEMBER 18, 2020

5:00 P.M. PST / 6:00 P.M. MST / 7:00 P.M. CST / 8:00 P.M. EST

Siblings of people with special developmental, health and mental health concerns have important stories to share. Yet, often siblings are overshadowed at home and overlooked by service providers. Black, indigenous, and people of color who have brothers and sisters with disabilities experience additional challenges because of structural, systemic and individual racism.

This very special moderated roundtable will feature adult siblings of people with disabilities from the BIPOC community who will share their experiences, insights, and perspectives on life as a sibling of color.

This includes an open Q&A.

There is no cost for this event, but space is limited.
